ABOUT ME

As an Industrial Engineer turned Software Developer, I specialize in building AI-powered and data-driven products. With over three years of experience leading full-stack and machine learning-driven projects, I focus on creating scalable, intelligent systems that add real value to logistics and digital operations.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Founding Engineer

Sep 2025 – Present

Aurigaia – AI for Sustainable Logistics, Remote

- Building AI-driven tools for sustainable transport and operations intelligence.
- Leading architecture and infrastructure decisions for early-stage MVP development.
- Tech Stack: Next.js, TypeScript, Supabase, TailwindCSS, shadcn/ui, Vercel, GitHub.

Chief Technology Officer (CTO)

Apr 2024 – Present

Envío X Envío – The Digital Freight Forwarder of Europe, Barcelona

- Led technical strategy and full-stack development of the company's digital freight platform.
- Integrated OpenAI models to create an internal chatbot connected to company data, capable of responding to operator queries and triggering in-platform actions.
- Designed and maintained a graph-based pricing algorithm for real-time cost optimization.
- Automated billing workflows, multi-language domain translation, and SEO optimization.
- Tech Stack: Next.js, TypeScript, Supabase, TailwindCSS, shadcn/ui, Vercel, GitHub.

Note: Aurigaia and Envío X Envío share the same founders.
